Contucci won the dressage portion of his 100-day Test with an impressive 147.11 points, earning 9s on his character, willingness, rideability, trot, and canter. He was very successful in the young horse classes in Germany and developed easily up the levels. Like his sire Caprimond, Contucci consistently passes along his positive influence for conformation, gaits, and rideability. Contucci’s grandsire, Lungau, is also the damsire of the Olympic and World Cup competitors Salinero and Brentina.

Contucci was named the 2005 USEF Dressage Breeding Sire of the Year, the 2009 USEF Dressage Sire of the Year, and consistently ranks in the Top 10 of the USEF Sire Rankings. His offspring are winning from Training Level through Grand Prix with amateurs, juniors, and professionals and have numerous Year-End, Regional, and National titles to their credit.

Breeding Fee: $1200 1-year Cooled Semen or $1600 2-year Frozen Semen
